BESSER CEMETERY

Drive east of New Waverly on Highway 150 for 1.7 miles, turn left on Podraza Road and drive .5 mile. A gate is on the left. Turn in the gate and drive straight .1 mile. The cemetery is in a pasture. It is enclosed with an iron fence approximately 15’ by 30’ and overgrown with underbrush and trees. It is located on the private property of Mr. And Mrs. Joe Wesolick and permission is required.

Updated by Joe and Clara Malak April 10, 2000.

Besser, Julia A. Mrs. aged 33 years 2 months 13 May 1845

[A previous copier noted Mrs. Besser’s maiden names was Hampton and that she was the wife of General John S. Besser, buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Huntsville.]

S. E. C. is on a marker, possibly a foot marker.

Another similar marker is broken at the top and bottom.
BLACK JACK CEMETERY

Follow highway #75 south from Huntsville to Farm Road #2296, turn left. Drive 2.6 miles; turn right and cross over railroad tracks, turn left, and follow the road along the railroad for .4 miles, which will lead directly to the cemetery.

These inscriptions were copied by Lucy Alice Bruce Stewart who provided additional information. In June 1999 De Ann Monroe Steely copied the markers. These lists were compared and updated March 2000, by Clara & Joe Malak.

An asterisk * marks the graves which appears on the original Stewart List not now verifiable.

Information in parentheses ( ) provided by Lucy Alice Bruce Stewart.
Information in brackets [ ] provided by Joe and Clara Malak.

BOSWELL CEMETERY

Appendix to Boswell Cemetery Inscriptions

Mrs. George (Eliza Besser) Hall (1875–1963) made an undated handwritten List of burials in Boswell Cemetery. The list was in the possession of her daughter Mrs. Buford (Hazel) Ellis (1904–1992) who made me a copy about 1970. Mrs. Hall lived in the Boswell community all her life, and she would have been about 15 years old when the first burial (Mrs. Bennie Bonds) took place. Her list appears to be have been made by walking the cemetery and grouping names by rows. She connected some names with braces, which are indicated below with a single bracket and double spacing. The last person on her list is Pluch [G. L.] Bonds, who died in 1956, and since he is not listed with his family (Luna, Gus, etc.), it is presumed that the list was made earlier and his name was added.

CAGLE RIDGE CEMETERY

The following information is from Mrs. Roberta Zackary, Shafter CA.
In New Waverly drive west on Farm Road 1375 for 6.2 miles. Park on the roadside and walk several hundred feet south into the woods.

The cemetery had a barbed wire fence around it which is now deteriorated. It is advisable to contact the nearby Forest Service for assistance in looking for the cemetery. The woods have thick underbrush with no distinguishing landmarks for guidance.

COTTON FAMILY CEMETERY

Drive south on Interstate 45 about one mile and take exit 114, go to Signal light (.1 mile), turn right on Farm Road 1374. Drive 4.2 miles to Ball Road. Turn left on Ball Road and drive .7 mile, to an unmaintained "rut" road, keeping to the left, drive .7 mile to a gap (gate). Enter gap and go to the right about .1 mile to the cemetery on the left. Depending upon the weather, walking might be required from the gap to the cemetery. For anyone unfamiliar with the area, local assistance would be helpful, as much of Ball Road and all of the remaining drive is in the woods.

The cemetery is on the private property of Capt. and Mrs. Carl Ballard, who "inherited the cemetery" when they purchased the property. Capt. Ballard said they have no connection with the Cotton family. The iron fenced cemetery contains two double markers.

War of 1812 and Citizen of the Republic of Texas markers are on the monument.

[A previous copier noted that the marker was erected in 1990 by Donal Josey, and family records of the late Mrs. Mollye Josey King were in the possession of Mrs. Virginia Smither King. The notation included that Melisa was a daughter and Mollye Josey King was a grandchild.]

"Born in Virginia, Elijah Collard settled on the frontier in Kentucky and in Missouri, where he fought in the War of 1812. Collard migrated to Texas in 1833. He was elected to the Consultation at San Felipe in 1835 and served on the General Council. In 1837, when Montgomery County was created, he was named one of the first commissioners. MARTHA'S CHAPEL CEMETERY

Located southwest of Huntsville, TX, between Farm Road #1374 and Farm Road #1791 off Bowden Road. Martha's Chapel Cemetery Road is about two miles from FM Road #1791. The cemetery is about half a mile down this Road. Listing in Walker County deed book #26 page 93 shows that John C. Black gave the land 19 Feb 1855 to the Methodist Church for a church and cemetery. The trustees at that time were: Robert Wynne, W.S. Boling, S.M. Jenkins, R.P. Stone and A.C. Palmer. The church land has been sold, but the cemetery has been kept intact. There are many field stones and many broken markers.

Palmer, Martha Almira Dougharty 1853
Following her death, the cemetery was named for her.

TX HISTORICAL MARKER
MARTHA'S CHAPEL

Robinson's settlement became a stronghold for Methodist activity in Southeast Texas in the early 1830's. By 1839 a campground, church, and school were established here on land given by William and Elizabeth Robinson to the Rev. Littleton Fowler, superintendent of Methodism in the Republic of Texas. Early Clergy who visited and served here included Isaac Strickland, Jesse Hord, Joseph P. Sneed, and Bishop Thomas A. Morris. The Fourth Texas Methodist Conference met here in 1843, with Bishop James O. Andrew presiding. The Church and the area became known as Martha's Chapel in 1854 after Martha Palmer, wife of a church trustee, died and was buried behind the church building. During the pastorate of the Rev. James G. Johnson (1812-1887), it was also referred to as Johnson's Chapel. At his death, Johnson bequeathed funds to complete the construction of the third and last place of worship at this site. It was dedicated on October 18, 1887, by Bishop W. W. Duncan. Although the congregation disbanded in the 1930's, ending a century of Methodism in this area, the Martha's Chapel Cemetery remains as a reminder of the area's pioneer heritage.

MOORE'S GROVE CEMETERY

Located on north side of Farm Road #1374 about 2 miles west of Int. #45 at the New Waverly exit.

There are only two marked graves with a chain linked fence around them.

Stewart, James Samuel 11 Sep 1823 7 Feb 1908
Stewart, Mary Eliza 30 Apr 1843 6 Aug 1904

James Samuel Stewart & Mary Eliza O'Banion were m. 19 May 1867, recorded in Marriage Book #2, Number 772, by Rev. J.V. Wright.

There are several infants buried here, but the graves were never marked and therefore location lost. There are monuments at the above Stewarts' graves with a chain-link fence around them. Erected by James Rush Stewart, Sr. a grandson.

On Oct 9, 1908, the children of James S. and Mary E. Stewart executed two deeds indicating the conveyance of "our entire interest in and to all lands owned by our father and mother, now deceased, excepting our Interest in the church and graveyard lot of seven-tenths of an acre."
The children signing were:

Mrs. Mattie Ellisor & Husband Nathan Ellisor of Waco, TX
John R. Stewart
P. (Preston) B. Stewart
Mrs. Cynthia Owen & husband C. R. "Dick" Owens
Mrs. Mollie Calfee & husband J. H. Calfee of Willis, TX
Mrs. Emma Vick & husband John O. Vick
William G. Stewart, wife Mamie Wood
James Wilson Stewart, wife Nellie Pool
Mrs. Elizabeth "Lizzie" Collard - widow of W. E. Collard
Charles L. Stewart
Miss Beulah Stewart, later married Robert I. Vick

Recorded Deed Book Volume 30, pages 165 – 171, Walker Co, TX.
Driving south on Highway 75, turn left on Farm Road 2296 and drive 2.6 miles. The road is on the left, less than .1 mile from the Black Jack Cemetery road. Located on private property. A locked iron-pipe gate prevents entry. Checked by Joe and Clara Malak several times, but were unsuccessful. Last checked April 10, 2000.
A previous copier supplied the following information.

There was a large plantation with a two-story house when these persons were buried here. The place belonged to S. J. Murray.

Warren, Walter Lee
01 Nov 1821 30 Sep 1885
"Erected to the memory of my husband by his affectionate wife."
S. J. Warren – nee Murray (gave property for Black Jack church and cemetery).

There are three other graves of the Murray family buried here that do not have monuments.

Deason, Alphus F.
10 Feb 1856 20 Sep 1886
He was a friend of the Murray family.

NOTE: This was the husband of Dora Emma Pierce, daughter of Liberty Enoch and Helen Womack Pierce all buried in Black Jack Cemetery. A. F. Deason and Dora E. Pierce were married 28 Nov 1880 in Conway County, Arkansas. After his death she married John Nauls in Walker County, Texas in 1888. There are no direct descendants from this Deason couple.
PINE VALLEY CEMETERY

Located east of New Waverly off highway #150. Turn left on Farm Road #2778. A short distance after passing the Winters Memorial Cemetery, the road becomes #2693. There is sign pointing to the church and cemetery, which is about one-half mile. Services are still held at this lovely air-conditioned country church. This location is on the line of the counties of Walker and San Jacinto, TX.

Located about 2.7 miles from the Walker County line in Grimes County to the south of Highway #30, 1.5 miles east of Shiro. Many of the persons buried here were residents of Walker County or owned property near the County lines in Walker County, Texas. A plaque attached to the large brick columns entering the cemetery reads:

Note: Miss Jessie Harman lived on her farm–ranch in Walker County. She was a member of the Daughters of the United Confederacy. Her grave is located in the south-east portion of the cemetery with a simple headstone.

Note: Graves are listed starting at the front north corner going south along the fence, then going back and forth across cemetery where possible.

STEWARD FAMILY CEMETERY

This old neglected family cemetery is located about six miles east of Huntsville on highway #19, about one quarter mile in a pasture.

Stones visible in 1968 when recorded by Lucy Alice Bruce Stewart were:

Stewart, James G. 22 Jan 1812 22 Jul 1867
b. Robinson Co. TN

Stewart, Henry Clay b. Waxubee Co. MS 28 Oct 1846 9 Oct 1855
Both Stewart monuments are good grade of marble that cover the graves but are flat on the ground.

Tilman, Daniel W. b. Green Co. VA 7 Aug 1830 8 Mar 1855
This marker is concrete and broken.

Thomas, Silas 14 Apr 1816 14 Aug 1900

From the US Census of Walker County, Texas 1860 - page 37.#222-217

Stewart, James G. 48 m, Farmer b. Tenn.
Nancy C. 37 f Ala.
Priscilla G. 16 f Mo.
Sarah O. 15 f Mo.
Mary M. O. 10 f La.

In the census record the name is spelled Stuart; but the stones read Stewart.
Miss Eleanor Randolph of Huntsville, Texas was a descendant of the above Stewart family.
TAYLOR - WINTERS CEMETERY

On private property about six miles east of Huntsville on highway #190 was a family cemetery where it is thought most all of the families of those listed below were buried. Those that witnessed the destruction that had been done to the graves by the property owners in 1969 were:

Mrs. James Rush Stewart, Sr.
Mrs. Homer L. Costilow; and
Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Head, Sr. all of Huntsville.

Mrs. Bartee who was a neighbor to those buried here was concerned that people would destroy graves and monuments. Mr. Head and others had seen the monument of Antony Winters, but the day these four were there this marker had been covered with dirt by a bulldozer. One monument that had been pulled to the side was of a good grade of marble and still readable, but lay flat on the ground.

Taylor, Richard H.  1855  1918
Winters, Antony  ca 1824

Some of the people that live in the Phelps Community remember attending the funeral of the above men.

Listed in the U. S. Census of Walker County, Texas: 1860 page 101, house no. 645-638 was:

Winter, Anton  36 m  well digger  Personal $400  b. Bavaria
Winter, Amelia  26 f  b. Canada
Taylor, Mary  9 f  b. MO.
Richard  4 m  b. MO.

This family listed between W.G. Pursley and Dr. W.H. Smith Census of 1870 - page 48 - Precinct, #3 house no. 359-359:

Winters, Antony  48 m  Farmer real Est. $300 - Per.$400  b. Bavaria
Amelia  36 f  wife - keep house  b. Canada
Taylor, Mary  18 f  at home  b. Ill.
Taylor, Richard  14 m  farmhand  b. Ill.
Sims, Nancy  13 f  house work  b. La.

THREE GRAVES CEMETERY

Drive east of Huntsville 7 miles to Farm Road 2296 (signal light), turn right and drive .7 mile Watson Lake Road (also called Three Notch Road) cross the railroad and drive 1.5 miles. The road forms a "Y". The road sign is Three Notch Road; keep to the right and drive 1.7 miles; drive straight on a dirt road (the paved road veers to the right) 1.7 miles. The cemetery is on the right in an unfenced corner of a pasture. Only two broken markers were found, "common knowledge" states three graves are there. Located on private property. Copied by Joe and Clara Malak, April 10, 2000.

Waverly Cemetery

The Waverly Cemetery is now known as the Old Waverly Cemetery. It is located 7.4 miles east of New Waverly on highway 150; turn left, drive .3 miles; turn left again, drive .3 miles; and, turn left, drive .3 miles to the cemetery. Direction signs are posted on highway 150 and the other roads.

The cemetery is divided by three driveways. As with most old cemeteries, the pattern of many rows and spaces is undefined, thus making it difficult to record the graves by a grid. Generally, the reading of the tombstones is on the right side of the middle driveway crisscrossing back and forth to the east fence to the back. Editorial notes are enclosed in brackets [ ]; additional information is enclosed in parentheses ( ); FHM means Funeral Home Marker. The listings were updated in December 1998 by Linda Parrish and Clara Malak, and again updated March 18, 2000, by Joe and Clara Malak.

A sundial near the middle drives contains the following inscription:
In grateful appreciation - Sue Ellisor Hardy 1883 - 1966 for her labor of love. The Waverly Cemetery.”
